rifice-The Blood of Christ-Cases of Suostitution-Life for Life-Frequence of Suffering for Others.

WASHINGTONS March 21.-From many conditions of life Dr Talmage. in this sermon, draws graphic illustrations of one of the sublimest theories of religion-namely, vicarious sacrifice. His text was Hebrews ix, 22, "Without shedding of blood is no remission." John G. Whittier, the last of the great school of American poets that made the last quarter of a century brilliant, asked me in the White mountains, one morning, in which I had given out Cowper's famous hymn about the "fountain filled with blood, "Do you really believe there is a literal application of the blood of Christ to the soul?" My negative reply then is my negative reply now. The Bible statement agrees with all physicians, and all physiologists, and all scientists. in saying that the blood is the life, and in the Christian religion it means simply that Christ's life was given for our life. Hence all this talk of men who say the Bible story of blood is disgusting and they don't want what they call a "slaughter house religion" only shows their incapacity or unwillingness to look through the figure of speech toward the thing signified. The blood that on the darkest Friday the world ever saw, oozed or trickled or poured from the brow, and the side, | weaker and weaker and dies for peoand the hands and the feet of the illustrious sufferer, back of Jerusalem. in a few hours coagulated and dried man had depended on the application newspaper line tells us of his sacrifice, of the literal blood of Christ there would not have been a soul saved for | Yet he has touched the farthest height the last 18 centuries.

That is what Paul means, that is what I mean, that is what all those who have ever had their heart changed mean by "blood." I glory in this religion of blood. I am thrilled as I see the suggestive color in sacrament silver set on cloth immaculately white or rough hewn from wood set on table in log hut meeting house of the wilderness. Now I am thrilled as I see the altars of ancient sacrifice crimson with the blood of the slain lamb, and Leviticus is to me not so much the Old Testament as the New. Now I see why the destroying angel, pass ing over Egypt in the night, spared all those houses that had blood sprinkled on their doorposts. Now I know what Isaiah means when he speaks of one in red apparel coming with dyed garments from Bosrah," and whom the Apocalypse means when it descrbes a heavenly chieftain whose vesture was dipped in blood," and what Peter, the apostle, means when he speaks of the "precious blood that cleanseth from all sin," and what the old, worn out, decrepit missionary Paul means when, in my text, he "Without shedding of blood is cries, no remission." By that blood you and will be saved or never saved at all. Glory be to God that the hill back of

This fact gives further evidence in support of the theory of murder. Some of the people believe that possibly while the other members of the family were being murdered this child the house had burned awhile, when the body was thrown into the fire. The fact that a part of the skull is gone and the rest of the head perfect with the skin of her face only badly burned, lends weight to the theory that she was knocked in the head, probably with an axe.
